The above listed rules will govern settlement of all scheduled 7 inning games, including any that are shortened after first pitch. c. Bets will be settled on the result of the podium presentation regardless of any subsequent disqualifications. a. Where specified, certain markets will be offered on an "all-in compete or not" basis. This means that, if a player, team or other competitor is withdrawn from an event (whether he, she or it pulls out of the event, is suspended or disqualified from it or otherwise) before he, d. If the scheduled venue is changed after a bet is placed, all bets will be void. she or it has taken part in the event, then any bet placed on that player, team or competitor (as applicable) will be deemed a losing bet. e. On "head-to-head" bets (i.e. match bets) the driver/rider who finishes ahead or completes the most number of laps is deemed to be the winner, both drivers must start. b. If a player, team or other competitor has taken any part in a sporting event once it has officially started and then fails to complete that event for any reason, any bet placed on that player, team or other competitor will be deemed live (i.e. bets on that player, team or other f. a. Some markets have different rules, and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, where a market has no rules in the Specific Sports Rules in relation to an abandonment, cancellation and/or postponement the following shall apply. b. In relation to any match, fixture, game, individual event, race or similar: If the event is not completed within three days after the scheduled completion date, then all bets on markets for this event will be void and wagers on the event refunded, except for bets on any markets that have been unconditionally determined. c. In relation to any tournament, competition or similar: If the event is not completed within 24 hours following the scheduled completion date of the event, then any markets relating to the event will be settled in accordance with the official ruling of the relevant governing body, providing such a decision is given within 90 days after the scheduled completion date. If no official ruling is announced in this 90- day period, then bets on any market relating to this event will be void and wagers on the event refunded, except for bets on any markets which have been unconditionally determined. If a market is to be voided but has been part-settled as a courtesy to the Sportsbook customers, then such part-settled bets may be reversed (with approval from NGCB) and all bets on the market will be void. d. If there is no further sporting action in any market that does not contain the selection 'draw' or 'tie', all bets placed after this conclusion of action will be voided and wagers on the event refunded.

e. The Sportsbook will decide (acting reasonably) whether a market relates to a match (or similar) or a tournament (or similar). However, by way of example, the following shall apply: Major League Soccer Cup = tournament; 2. NFL AFC West = tournament; Ryder Cup outright = tournament; Golf tournament outright = tournament;

7. NBA Finals = match NBA Championship = tournament. 8. Change of venue

2. For all categories or markets other than team sports: if the scheduled venue is changed after a bet is placed, all bets will stand. 3. If there is a change in the type of scheduled surface (e.g. a soccer match switching from grass to astro-turf) after a bet is placed, all bets will stand.

Periods of time

a. A parlay bet consists of a number of legs. A leg is defined as one or more chosen selections in any individual event market.

a. Some markets have different rules, and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, if not dealt with in the Specific Sports Rules then the following shall apply. b. If the scheduled duration of an event is changed after a bet is placed but before the start of the event, then all bets will be void and wagers on this event will be refunded. c. Some markets refer to the length of time until an occurrence in the event (e.g. time of first goal). If an event happens in stoppage or injury time after any regular time period, then it will be deemed to have occurred at the end of the regular time period. For example, if a goal is scored in first half stoppage- time in a soccer match it will be deemed to have occurred on 45 minutes. d. All bets apply to the relevant full 'regular time' period including stoppage time. Any extra-time and/or penalty shoot-out is not included.

e. References within these Rules and Regulations to a particular number of 'days' shall mean the end of the day local time after the expiry of the specified number of days. For example, if a rugby match is scheduled for the 1st of December, then the rule that allows the match to be completed within three days after the scheduled completion date (see Paragraph 3 above) would mean that the deadline for completion of that match would be 11:59:59 p.m. on the 4th of December. 10. "To qualify" markets

a. Some markets have different rules, and these are listed in the Specific Sports Rules. However, if not dealt with in the Specific Sports Rules then the following shall apply. b. Any 'to qualify' market (e.g. "to reach the final" markets) will be determined by the competitor or team that progresses, whether or not they take part in the next round or event for which they have qualified. Markets will be settled after the qualifying stage and any subsequent disqualification or amendment to the result will not count.

11. Dead heats a. Unless stated otherwise in the Specific Sports Rules the Dead Heat Rule applies to bets on a market where there are more winners than expected. b. Dead heat is a term that describes when two or more selections in an event tie. If a "dead-heat" between two selections is declared on any event, half the stake is applied to the selection at full odds and the other half is lost. If more than two "dead-heats" are declared, the stake is proportioned accordingly.

a. The Sportsbook makes every effort to ensure that no errors are made in prices offered or bets accepted. However, human, mechanical error may occasionally result in errors. In the event such errors should occur, NGCB will be notified as soon as possible following the Sportsbook becoming aware of such error and no payouts will be awarded by the Sportsbook unless NGCB requires the Sportsbook to make such payouts.

b. The Sportsbook reserves the right in its sole discretion not to accept certain multiple bets or to scale back stakes. c. All multiple bets placed are subject to the Sportsbook Rules that apply to each individual sport that relates to any leg of any multiple bet. d. If any selection in any leg is a non-runner or otherwise void under the Sportsbook Rules (e.g. an abandoned match) then all bets on that individual leg will be void and the multiple bet shall be adjusted accordingly. For example, a 3 team parlay including one void leg will become a 2 team parlay. If that voided leg means that an individual bet within a multiple becomes a single bet, then this single bet will stand. e. Multiple bets combining different selections within the same event are not accepted when there are related contingencies (i.e. where the outcome of one event is likely to affect the odds on the outcome of another event). The rejection of related contingency bets may happen automatically at the bet placement stage.

14. Enhanced Price Bets a. Any bets for which we offer enhanced prices will be settled on the basis of normal time and injury time (i.e. excluding any extra time, penalties or similar) unless otherwise specified in the relevant bet or bet rules b. Unless otherwise stated, bets for which enhanced prices are offered will be governed by the Sportsbook's usual settlement rules. c. In the event the following errors should occur: (i) the enhanced price was intended to apply to pre-match bets only and (ii) we erroneously accepted the bet, at its enhanced price, after the relevant event started, NGCB will be notified as soon as possible following the Sportsbook becoming aware of such errors and no payouts will be awarded by the Sportsbook unless NGCB requires the Sportsbook to make such payouts d. In the event of a clear and obvious wording or pricing error for an enhanced bet, we will (in accordance with our usual settlement rules and only with approval from NGCB) aim to settle the bet at the price at which we intended to offer, and/or pursuant to the wording which was clearly intended to relate to, the relevant bet.

15. Miscellaneous a. The Sportsbook reserves the right in its sole discretion not to accept certain Sportsbook bets, or to scale back the stakes. b. All references to time periods in the Sportsbook Rules relate to the time zone in which the event takes place. For example, a reference to the start time of a football game, relates to the local kick-off time. c. All information supplied by the Sportsbook is done so in good faith. However, the Sportsbook cannot accept liability for any errors or omissions in respect of any information, such as the posting of prices, runners, times, scores, results or general statistics. d. Any results or scores of which you may be advised by a Sportsbook employee or agent (for example during betting in-play) are provided for guidance purposes only. e. Customers are responsible for ensuring that they satisfy themselves that the selection on which they place a bet is their intended selection. For example, in the case of a competitor bearing the same name as another individual not competing in the relevant event, the onus is on the customer to ensure that they know which competitor is being referred to in the relevant market and to ensure that they are placing their bet on their chosen competitor. f. The Sportsbook may, in its sole and absolute discretion, decide to suspend betting on a market at any time (even if such suspension is earlier than anticipated by the Sportsbook Rules). g. The Sportsbook reserves the right to restrict the availability of a promotion to any person at its absolute discretion.

h. The Sportsbook reserves the right, at our discretion, to perform any and all reasonable investigations on customers for the purpose of verifying information about customers such as source of funds, background history, and creditworthiness. Part C - Specific Sports Rules

1. American Football 1.1 General Rules

1.2 Overview of Specific Markets

a. At least ten minutes of official time must elapse in the fourth quarter for bets to have action. b. Overtime counts for all markets unless stated otherwise c. Abandoned or postponed games are void unless played within the same scheduling week. In the event of a change of venue, all bets will still have action. d. All settlements are based on results and statistics provided by the relevant league's governing body. e. We reserve the right to suspend any or all betting on a game at any time without notice.

f. Handicap betting: In Handicap & Total betting, where the index (value) of the market is a whole number, bets are void and will be refunded where the score lands on that number. g. All Outright markets include playoffs where applicable. h. For settlement purposes, the team listed second in the event name is always considered the Home Team. Example: Team A v Team B or Team A @ Team B - Team B is the Home Team.

a. Live Betting 1. Where a Handicap Draw selection (3-Way Handicap market) is offered during live betting, only bets placed on the draw will be settled as winners when the result lands on the whole number selected. 2. Prices quoted are for the whole game inclusive of any overtime played. 3. As the markets are in-running, we reserve the right to close the market at any time. 4. For Live Betting purposes, these rules apply unless stated otherwise. 5. When scores are displayed in running, every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the score and game time; however, no liability is accepted for incorrect information displayed. b. Proposition bets: 1. In the event of an abandoned game, all stakes are returned, unless a result is already determined through the course of play that has taken place. 2. For player prop markets, any bets on a player who is listed as "inactive" on nfl.com will be voided. All other bets will stand.

quarter, First Basket / First Quarter Double bets are resulted as a loss. b. The First Team Basket: Scorer will be resulted on the first scorer from each team; Should a player listed not start the game, all bets on the player selected will be void (otherwise betting is all-in). c. Player Performance Markets: All bets stand once a player takes the court, irrespective of game time played. All totals are inclusive of overtime. Should a player not take any part, all bets will be void. d. Player Performance Markets offered in-play/during half time: Bets on this market refer to the quoted statistic recorded by a named player for the whole match (including overtime). If a player doesn't see any game time, then all bets on that player will be void. e. Player Match Bets: Bets on this market refer to the quoted statistic recorded by a named player by the end of a match (including overtime). If one of the players doesn't see any game time, then all bets on that market will be void. f. Team: Player most points/rebounds/assists: Bets placed on this market will be settled on the player who makes the most of the relevant quoted statistic. In case two or more players tie, dead heat rules apply. g. Competition: Player most points/rebounds/assists: Bets placed on this market will be settled on the player who makes the most of the relevant quoted statistic at the end of the competition excluding playoffs, unless otherwise stated. In case two or more players tie, dead heat rules apply. Rule 4 deduction won't apply.

h. Series Points, Rebounds, Assists, Steals and Blocks match bet: A series must come to a natural conclusion for bets to stand. Overtime counts for settlement purposes. In case two or more players tie, dead heat rules apply.

5 Boxing and Mixed Martial Arts

(i.e. the scheduled number of rounds).

5.1 Boxing a. General Boxing Rules: 1. Results will be based on the official result at ringside with the exception of a technical draw (the rules for which are set out in the "Technical Decision / Draw" section below). 2. Results are not official for betting purposes until verified by officials at the fighting venue. If for some reason official verification does not occur at the fighting venue, then (and only then) will reference will be made to www.boxrec.com for settlement purposes. Should an official or unofficial sanctioning body overturn a fight decision based on an appeal, suspension, lawsuit, drug testing result or any other fighter sanction, this will not be recognized for betting purposes. 3. Should a contest be postponed, bets will stand if the rescheduled event occurs within 48 hours. Otherwise, all bets in relation to the contest will be void.

4. In the event of a 'no contest' being declared, all bets will be made void, with the exception of selections where the outcome has already been unequivocally determined. 5. Should there be a change in the manner in which a contest is advertised (e.g. a contest changes from a title fight to a non-title fight) bets will stand. 6. Match Betting markets where no draw selection is offered will be made void if the match ends in a draw. 7. In fights where the scheduled number of rounds changes, all bets will stand unless the result would be automatically determined by the change in the number of rounds (in which case, such bets will be voided). For example, if a fight gets changed from a 12 to a 10 round fight, bets on rounds 11 and 12 will be void. b. Round Betting 1. Where a boxer fails to answer the bell for the next round, his opponent shall be deemed to have won the contest in the previous round. 2. Subject to the following rule, should, for any reason, the scheduled number of rounds be changed before the commencement of the contest, all round by round bets will stand.

3. Notwithstanding the above rule, should, for any reason, the scheduled number of rounds be decreased before the commencement of the contest, all round by round bets on the dropped rounds will be void. Bets on all the remaining rounds will stand. 4. Where a contest finishes before the completion of the scheduled number of rounds and, for any reason, the winner is decided by the judges' scorecards (technical decision/technical draw) then all round bets will be deemed losers. 5. If the contest goes to the scorecards, then all round bets will be deemed losers. 6. Where a contest finishes before the scheduled number of rounds due to an accidental injury and the winner is not determined by the judges' scorecards, all bets will be void. 7. For "Total Rounds" settlement purposes, 1 minute and 30 seconds will represent half a round. For example, for a bet on "Over 10.5 rounds" to be a winner, the fight must last beyond 1 minute and 30 seconds in round 11. If the number of rounds for a fight is changed after this market has been set then all bets on this market will be void. 8. For "Will the Fight Go the Distance" (or similarly titled) markets, should the scheduled number of rounds change, this market will be made void. In the event of a technical decision, for settlement purposes, the fight will have been deemed NOT to have gone the distance

c. Method of victory 1. A knockout (KO) occurs when the boxer does not stand up after a ten count. Technical knockouts (TKO) occur when a boxer is knocked down three times within the same round and the fight is stopped or where the referee steps in to stop the fight when it is decided that a fighter cannot safely continue. If a fighter fails to answer a bell for the next round, then this will also be deemed a TKO. For betting purposes, KO/TKO options also include disqualification and retirement. d. Technical Decision/Draw 1. If a fight is scheduled for more than four rounds and, after four rounds, an accidental foul occurs which causes an injury (further to which the referee stops the fight), the fight will be deemed to have resulted in a technical decision in favor of the boxer who is ahead on the scorecards at the time the fight is stopped (and all markets on the fight will stand).

2. If the accidental injury / technical decision occurs during the first 4 rounds, all bets will be made void UNLESS the result of the relevant market has already been unequivocally determined or if the judges' scorecards are used to determine an official winner at ringside. 3. If an intentional foul causes an injury and the injury results in the fight being stopped in a later round: (i) the injured boxer will be deemed to have won by technical decision if he is ahead on the scorecards and (ii) the fight will result in a 'technical draw' if the injured boxer is behind or even on the score cards (and, for settlement purposes, the result of the fight will be deemed to be a draw). 4. For betting purposes, betting on rounds or a group of rounds is for a fighter to win by KO, TKO, disqualification or due to the other fighter retiring during that round or group of rounds. In the event of a technical decision before the end of the fight, all round bets will be e. To Score a Knockdown 1. For settlement purposes, a knockdown is defined as a fighter being KO'd or receiving a mandatory eight count (anything deemed a slip by the referee will not count). f. Prizefighter Rules

2. Outright bets will be settled based on the winning boxer who lifts the trophy. If a substitute is introduced during the tournament, all outright bets will stand, and an outright price will be quoted for the new boxer. All outright bets on boxers who withdraw during the tournament due to injury or cuts (having fought on the card) will be deemed to be losing bets. 3. Outright bets will be void on any named boxer who does not start the tournament. This rule does not apply to the reserve fighters. 4. "Either reserve" (or similar) may be listed as a selection for any Prizefighter tournaments. These selections are priced on a compete or not basis and, accordingly, all bets on these selections will stand whether or not a reserve fighter competes. 5.2 Mixed Martial Arts

3. Should there be a substitution for one of the fighters, bets on the original contest will be void. 1. Prices are offered for each fighter to win the fight and, in the event of a draw, all bets will be void and stakes returned (for these purposes, draws will include fights which end in a 'majority draw'). 2. Bets will be settled on the official result announced in the ring. Subsequent appeals/amendments do not affect settlement (unless the amendment was made due to human error when announcing the result). 1. For the purposes of this market, a KO includes the following: a) referee stoppage while either fighter is, or both fighters are, standing;

1. Match bets will be settled on the result announced in the ring. If any result is announced incorrectly at ringside but is subsequently corrected, then bets will be settled based on the corrected winner.

1. Should a contest be postponed, bets will stand if the rescheduled event occurs within 48 hours. Otherwise, all bets in relation to the contest will be void.

2. Stakes may be refunded before the original contest if requested. In the event of a 'no contest' being declared, all bets will be made void.

b) referee stoppage while either fighter is, or both fighters are, on the canvas;

c) stoppage by doctor; stoppage by a fighter's corner/team; and

d) a fighter retires due to injury.

2. For the purposes of this market, a submission includes the following: a) referee stoppage due to tap-out; b) referee stoppage due to technical submission; and c) a fighter's verbal submission (including a verbal submission which is made due to strikes). 3. In the event of a disqualification or a 'no contest' being declared, this market will be void.

1. The winning selection will be determined based on the round in which the fight ends and the method of victory. Bets on this market will be deemed losing bets if the fight ends in a decision.

d. Round Betting / Total Rounds 1. If a fighter withdraws in the period between rounds, the fight will be deemed to have ended in the previous round for the purpose of "Round Betting" settlement. 2. For "Total Rounds" settlement purposes, 2 minutes and 30 seconds will represent half a round (if the round lasts for 5 minutes). For example, for a bet on "Over 1.5 rounds" to be a winner, the fight must last beyond 2 minutes and 30 seconds in round 3. If the number of rounds in a fight is changed after "Total Rounds" markets have been set, then all bets on these markets will be void. 4. Should the scheduled number of rounds be changed before the fight, all "Round Betting" bets will be made void. e. Quickest Fight of the Night 1. This market is settled on the official times which are made available on www.ufc.com and the winner shall be settled according to whichever fight finishes in the least amount

2. Our dead heat rules apply if two fights finish after the same amount of time. 1. Any fighter who wins before the fight goes its scheduled distance is declared the winner. If the fight goes to a decision, then the cumulative scores of all the judges will be used to determine the winner. If the fight is declared a 'no contest', this market will be void.

2. Any drivers who do not qualify for the race will be deemed no action. 3. The race must be run within one week of the scheduled off time for there to be action. 4. The podium presentation will count as the result and any subsequent inquiries will not affect settlement of bets. b. Race Driver Matchups

1. All match-ups will be settled as per the official IndyCar result. If one driver fails to complete the race then the other driver will be declared the winner. Where both drivers fail to complete the race then the number of full laps completed will determine the result. In the event of both drivers failing to complete on the same lap, then the official placing as assigned by the official IndyCar result. 2. Both drivers must start the race (e.g. cross the start line) for bets to be action. If any driver is replaced before the start of the race, then all match-ups will be void. c. Race Props 1. Race props will be settled on official IndyCar results (e.g. cautions, caution laps, lead changes, number of leaders, winning car etc.). If a race is shortened and no official results are posted then all bets will be deemed no action. 9 Olympics 9.1 Olympics - General Rules a. The final medal table declared by the governing body will be used to settle all bets. Any subsequent changes will not be taken into consideration.

b. All bets will be settled on medal/podium ceremony. Subsequent disqualifications or amendments will not be counted for settlement purposes. c. Unless otherwise explicitly stated in the market or the sports specific rules below; all bets will be settled according to the rules for the relevant sport and/or the relevant general rule. d. Dead Heat Rules apply. 10 Soccer 10.1 Soccer - General Rules

a. Unless otherwise stated, all bets on soccer markets apply to 90 minutes of play according to the match officials, plus any added injury or stoppage time. However extra-time and penalty shoot-outs are not included. The only exceptions are for: matches that are scheduled for a lesser duration (e.g. 60, 70,80 or 120 minutes) as agreed by the laws of the competition in which they are competing or agreed by both sides prior to kick-off. In such cases, if the match is played in the traditional format of two halves, all bets will be settled at the end of the agreed game length which includes time added on by the referee for stoppages (whether the game length is advertised by the Sportsbook or not). If the game is played in an unusual format (e.g. 3 or 4 periods) then all half-time markets will be voided but all other markets will be settled on the basis of the score at the end of the match (including any time added on by the referee for stoppages). b. For 'Extra-Time' markets, bets apply to 30 minutes of play according to the match officials, plus any added injury or stoppage time. However extra-time and penalty shoot-outs are not included. In 'Extra-Time' markets, bets apply to the result during the extra-time period only. For the purposes of this market the score shall be deemed to be 0-0 at the start of the extra-time period. c. In circumstances where over 90% of the scheduled match time has been completed and the referee ends the match before the allotted time has elapsed then we will use that result for the settlement of all bets placed on the game. Otherwise, if a match starts but is later abandoned or postponed and the Sportsbook believes that the match will not have been completed by 23:59 (local time) on its scheduled start date, then all markets, with the exception of any unconditionally determined markets, will be void unless the Sportsbook has knowledge that the match has been rescheduled to be played within three days of its original start date. If the Sportsbook does have knowledge that the game will be played within three days and the game is played within three days, then all bets will stand except if the match is restarted from the beginning. If the match is restarted from the beginning then all bets matched before the market went in-play will stand, but any bets placed in-play will be void, except for any bets placed in-play on markets which have been unconditionally determined, which will stand. d. If a match has not started (or if the Sportsbook believes that a match will not have started) by 23:59 (local time) on its scheduled start date, then all bets will be void unless the Sportsbook has knowledge that the match has been rescheduled to be played within three days e. In the case of ambiguity over the official result from match officials, the outcome will be determined by the Sportsbook (acting reasonably) using information from independent sources. f. If an official fixture lists different team details to those listed on the Sportsbook website (for example, the team name, reserves, age group, gender, etc.), then all bets matched on the affected markets will be void. In all other cases, bets will stand (including instances where a team name is listed without specifying the term 'XI' in the name).

g. To the extent that a video assistant referee is consulted, the event which led to the referral will, for the purposes of these rules, be deemed to have occurred at the actual time of its occurrence (rather than the time on which the relevant referral, or decision, was made). h. Where we have settled a bet and, due to a subsequent VAR decision, it becomes apparent that such settlement was inaccurate, we reserve the right to reverse such settlement (provided that the VAR decision occurred prior to the conclusion of the match or other timeframe i. Bets which are placed between the occurrence of an incident which leads to a VAR review and the related VAR decision will be deemed void unless: (i) the VAR review (and subsequent decision) did not ultimately alter the decision made by the on-field officials or (ii) the VAR review (and subsequent decision) altered the decision made by the on-field officials but did not have any material influence on the bet(s) in question. All bets which were not materially influenced by the VAR review (and subsequent decision) will stand. j. In order to eliminate any doubt, we will consider the VAR as having been used if this is understood from the referee's gestures (e.g. hand gestures or stopping the match to review the incident themselves) and/or VAR usage is confirmed by the match report issued by the official governing body who is ultimately responsible for oversight of the applicable match. In cases where it is unclear whether the VAR has been used due to missing TV coverage and/or conflicting reports, PPBF will settle the bets based on the information acquired from feed k. There is a small possibility that we will inadvertently offer soccer bets in respect of which it is impossible for the outcome to occur (for example, we continue to offer bets on a player to be the first goal scorer in a match after that player has been substituted). While we have implemented systems which aim to prevent this from occurring, in the small number of circumstances where it does, we will void the bets in question (and return the relevant stakes to customers accordingly). I. Whoscored.com will be used to determine the settlement of any bets which are placed on: (i) a given player to achieve a certain number of shots or shots or shots on target, (ii) the total number of offsides awarded in a match or against a particular team, (iii) the total number of shots on target achieved by both sides, or either side, in a match or (iv) the total number of tackles made by either team in a match.

m. If a team is disqualified, thrown out or otherwise removed from a league before the relevant season has started then all bets involving that team will be made void. n. 'Shirt numbers' bets will refer to the shirt number allocated at the start of the match. 'Shirt numbers' bets will include own-goal scorers. Any player whose shirt bears no number will be allocated the number 12. o. For 'time of first goal' bets (i.e. "First Goal Odds" markets), the first half is deemed to last 45 minutes, regardless of stoppage time. Also, for these markets, please note that the "0 - 10 Minutes" selection covers the first 10 minutes of the match. In other words, it runs from 0:00 until just before the clock hits 10:00. The "11 - 20 Minutes" selection runs from 10:00 until just before the clock hits 20:00. The same principle applies to each of the other selections in this market. p. For FIFA Man of the Match markets, the market will be settled based on the official 'Man of the Match' as determined by FIFA. If FIFA fail to declare an official Man of the Match for any reason, all bets will be void. q. For domestic games live on Sky Sports the market will be settled based on who Sky give the award to during their live broadcast. If no award is made during the live broadcast the result will be settled as the player who is listed as the man of the match in the match report on skysports.com. If the result on skysports.com is different from the result of the Sky live broadcast, then the markets will be settled on the result from the live broadcast. For live domestic games on BT Sports, BBC and ITV Man of the match bets will also be settled in accordance to who the broadcaster names during the program. In the case of games on these channels, if no player is named during the program then all bets will be voided. The player must be specifically named as the man of the match and not just simply referred to as the man r. For matches that are broadcast live on Sky Sports as well as another channel, preference for settlement will be given to Sky Sports unless the Sportsbook have specifically outlined in the naming of the market that the result will be settled on the official tournament or

s. Likewise, an official tournament or sponsor award outlined in the naming of the market take precedence over the BT, BBC, and ITV pundit's award. t. Any player who takes the field for any part of a match will be deemed as a runner for settlement purposes. Only players not in the squad or unused substitutes will be deemed u. Anytime Score markets, If one or more of the players do not participate in the game, then they will be deemed non-runners and the original price will be reduced by the price of the said player(s), and settled according to the performance of the remaining selection(s).

Players will be deemed a participant in the listed market should they enter the game at any point in 90 minutes play plus injury time.

10.2 For First/Last Goalscorer markets:

a. All bets placed on players that do not take part in the match will be void. Bets placed on players who take the pitch after the first goal is scored will be voided for First Goalscorer purposes. Players will be deemed a participant for Last Goalscorer and Anytime Scorer markets should they enter the game at any point in 90 minutes play plus injury time. b. Own goals do not count and will be ignored for settlement purposes. Effort will be made to quote all participants but that will not discount a player that is not quoted from being settled a winner. Bets will only apply to 90 minutes play plus injury time. c. The following markets will also follow the rules applied to Anytime Scorer betting above: To Score 2 or More 2. To Score A Hat-trick 3. If the concussion rule is activated prior to that player batting or bowling, they will be void from relevant markets. g. Head to Head match-ups will be settled based on the cyclist achieving the highest placing in the specified event/stage. a. Each-way bets will be settled on first goal, second goal, third goal, fourth goal and fifth goal only. Players who do not score until after the fifth goal has been scored will be treated as losing selections. If less than five goals are scored in any given match, the Sportsbook will h. All bets will be deemed valid providing the event, or relative stage to which bet refers to, takes place within the same year, unless other arrangements have been agreed to. settle bets on the basis of those goals that are scored. If no goals are scored, all each-way bets will be regarded as losing bets. 1. Match bets will be settled according to the winner as determined by official competition rules (including where matches are shortened due to adverse weather conditions or are decided by a bowl off) unless the winner is determined by the toss of a coin or the drawing of i. Bets on performances in a particular stage stand regardless of any route modifications which the organizers might deem necessary to apply during a stage. Exception to this is where a stage which has a particular profile (i.e., Mountain Stage) is changed by the organizers, b. If a player enters the field of play after the first goal is scored, both the win and place part of the bet will be voided unless the first goal is an own goal (in which case bets will stand). If a player is sent off or substituted before the first goal is scored, bets on that selection prior to start of stage, into a stage which has a different predominant profile (i.e., Time Trial or Sprint Stage). In such case bets which have been placed prior to the announcement of the change in stage profile will be declared void. lots (in which case all match bets will be void). 2. If a match is tied and the official competition rules do not determine a winner, bets on the outright result will be void unless the outcome is settled by a bowl off or super over are deemed as losers. 14 Darts c. If a player scores the first goal of the match, both his win and place part are winners. If a player scores the second, third, fourth or fifth goal, only his place part is a winner. (in which case the result of the bowl off or super over will stand for match betting). If the competition rules determine the winner by the toss of a coin, drawing of lots or higher seeding resulting from a previous round then bets will be void. f. Test Matches d. A player cannot be placed twice (i.e. if he scores the second and third goal, only the second goal is deemed a winner). e. Each-way bets on no goalscorer, last goalscorer, first team goalscorers and scorecasts are not accepted. If any such bets are taken in error, then the full stake will be invested as a win only bet. 1. If a match is abandoned due to weather before a ball has been bowled then all bets will be void. a. In the event a match starts but is not completed, the player that progresses to the next round (or is declared the winner in a final) is settled as the winner in match betting markets only. Other markets (e.g. "set winner" markets) will be voided unless the market result has f. Place-only betting is not accepted. 2. If a match is tied or abandoned for any reason other than weather then bets on the outright result will be void. been unconditionally determined). g. Extra time does not count. 3. If a match is not completed for any reason then bets on 'any correct score' or 'next leg/game/set' market will be void unless the market has been unconditionally determined. h. Own goals do not count. In cases where an own goal is one of the first five goals then the sixth goal will be settled as a winner on the place part of the each-way bet. If two of the first five goals are own goals then the sixth and seventh goals will be settled as winners on the 4. If either side forfeits their first innings then all bets specifically relating to the first innings will be void. c. If a match is not completed for any reason then bets on any handicap market will be void unless the market has been unconditionally determined. d. For triples involving highest checkout, most 180s and win/loss of match, each of the bet must have been won outright for the bet to be deemed successful (and settled as a winning bet). For the avoidance of doubt, the bet will be deemed unsuccessful place part of the each-way bet, etc. In all other cases, the Sportsbook's Soccer rules apply. g. Series Betting 1. When the full number of scheduled matches is not played then we reserve the right to void any specialty markets which relate to the series as a whole. (and settled as a losing bet) if: (i) the selected player's highest checkout is the same as his/her opponent, (ii) the selected player scores the same number of 180s as his/her opponent and/or (iii) the match is tied. 10.4 For 'Tournament Hat-trick' markets: 2. If a series for which we did not offer a price for the draw ends in a draw then bets on the series result will be void. e. If a match is postponed and does not take place within 48 hours, bets for this match will be declared void. f. If the offered number of legs or sets is altered, any event already determined (e.g. "first set winner") will be settled. Match betting markets will also be settled under the condition that the match was decided by competitive play. All other bets will be declared void. h. Team Total Runs 1. If a team's innings in a test match or county championship match lasts less than sixty overs due to external factors then bets on this market will be void. This does not apply if the innings has reached its natural conclusion. a. Extra-time is included, however penalty shoot-outs and own goals are not included. In the event of any dispute as to who has scored any goal, we will follow the decision made by the relevant governing body q. Futures bets will be voided if the selection does not take part at any stage of the event. 2. For limited overs matches, this market will be settled on the final score achieved by the batting side including any extras or penalty runs awarded during the innings. Should there be a reduction in the scheduled overs then settlement will still apply provided the reduction 10.5 For Scorecast markets: is no more than 20% of the entire innings allocation at the time the bet was placed (including any overs the team has already faced). Should the reduction be greater than 20% then all bets shall be void regardless of the final total made by the team. If a team is due to 15 E-Sports face less than 10 overs, then all bets will be void should there be any reduction in overs whatsoever. a. Scorecasts are defined as First Player to Score / Correct Score Doubles. 3. In matches for which we offer betting on the Team Total Runs for both teams, all bets placed on the second innings runs will stand regardless of the score achieved by the side batting first, provided neither team's innings is reduced by more than 20% of the entire innings a. Official Results: all e-Sports bets will be settled in accordance with the official results of the match/tournament/race (as applicable) (following any extension of normal time where required unless otherwise specified) as declared by the official organizer, administrator or b. Players either not taking part in the game or taking part after a goal has been scored will cause a Scorecast bet to revert to a single on the correct score market at the relevant odds offered at kick-off. Connectivity: if a race, match or Map is officially determined to be a draw due to a connectivity or technical issue (or similar reason), all live bets on the respective race, match or map will be void. 4. Players named in the starting eleven that do not bat are deemed to have taken part and bets on any such players will be settled as losing bets. c. any goals scored in Play-Off matches will not count. 5. If two or more players score the same number of runs then dead heat rules will apply. h. If a race, match or Map is stopped and restarted from the beginning with the approval or the relevant administrator or official due to connectivity or technical issues which are not player related, then all undecided markets will be void. i. If a race, match or Map is replayed, all live betting on the original race, match or Map will be voided d. goals scored in extra-time are included, however goals scored in penalty shoot-outs are not included. 6. For limited overs matches, should the winner already be unequivocally decided even if the innings were to be played out to its natural conclusion, the market will be settled as normal despite any reduction. 7. Top Team Bowler / Wicket Taker (Series/Tournament)

10.8 For 'Mythical Match' markets:

a. "Mythical Match" bets are offered on the highest number of goals, corners or yellow cards (as applicable) achieved by, or awarded to, two teams who are playing in different matches. For example, where matches are due to occur between Team A and Team B (on the one hand) and Team C and Team D (on the other), we might offer a Mythical Match Market on whether, within those matches, Team A scores more goals, or is awarded more corners or yellow cards, than Team C (even though those teams are playing in separate matches). b. If both teams score the same number of goals, achieve the same number of corners or are awarded the same number of yellow cards (as applicable), the draw is the winning selection. c. The respective next fixtures of both teams will be displayed on our website.

d. If a team's next fixture is played on a different day from that displayed on our website, all Mythical Match bets involving such team will be void. e. Each relevant team's applicable fixture must be completed and have its result upheld by the competition's official governing body (e.g. the FA Premier League or FIFA) in order for mythical match bets between those teams to stand. f. In the case of a fixture not starting or being shortened due to external factors (e.g. unplayable conditions, security concerns, technical faults) all mythical match bets involving either of the two competing teams will be void.

g. If a match official shortens a match for any reason (e.g. foul play) all mythical match bets involving either of the two competing teams will be void.

10.9 For 'Shots on Target' markets: a. Any bets involving a given player to achieve a number of shots on target, the final determination of whoscored.com will be used to determine the number of shots on target which the relevant player achieved.

10.10 For "Player not to score" markets:

b. All shots on target bets are settled on the basis of 90 minutes' play (plus injury time) unless otherwise stated.

a. Players who are not on the field at the beginning of 90 minutes play will not be considered runners in this market and be settled as void. b. In markets which relate to the number of incidents to occur, such as 'number of corners', these will be determined on the basis of the number taken, rather than awarded. This will alsoapply to incidents where time is a consideration.

10.11 For "Team Multi Corner" markets:

a. Offered on the number of first half team corners multiplied by the number of second half team corners.

b. For markets that relate to the number of bookings given, the number of corners taken, any goalscorer or the time of a particular goal, the result will be determined by the Sportsbook (acting reasonably) using information from independent sources. In such cases, if any new information comes into the public domain within 72 hours of settlement, then the Sportsbook shall (acting reasonably) determine either: 1. whether the market should be reinstated or resettled in light of this new information; or

2. to wait for further information before deciding whether to reinstate or resettle the market. Except where the Sportsbook has announced that it is waiting for further information, any information that comes into the public domain more than 72 hours after a market has been settled shall not be considered by the Sportsbook (regardless of whether or not such information may have led to a different result). 10.12 For Bookings markets the following points system will be used:

a. Yellow card - 10pts

b. Red card - 25pts c. Maximum points awarded per player – 35pts d. Two yellow cards leading to an automatic red will score as one yellow and one red card

10.13 For Bookings markets: a. Cards shown to non-players do not count. Cards will only count that are shown to players after they take the pitch for the first time and before they leave the pitch for the final time.

10.14 For 'Shown a Card' markets:

a. The player does not need to play the full match and bets will stand if the player plays any part in the match. Bets will be void on any player that does not play any part in the match. In any dispute over whether or not a card was shown, the Sportsbook will settle the market when the ruling body has given its verdict. Subsequent appeals or rulings will not be considered. Cards will only count which are shown to players after they take the pitch for the first time and before they leave the pitch for the final time.

10.15 For 'Player Carded' markets: a. All bets placed on players that do not take part in the match will be void. Players will be deemed a participant for Player Carded markets should they enter the game at any point in 90 minutes play plus injury time. In any dispute over whether or not a card was shown, the Sportsbook will settle the market when the ruling body has given its verdict. Subsequent appeals or rulings will not be considered.

b. If a team is relegated from a league because, at the end of a season, it has finished within the relegation positions which are relevant to that league (i.e. usually any of the bottom three league positions), bets on that team to be relegated will be settled as winning bets. If a team is otherwise disqualified, thrown out or removed from a league (i.e. in circumstances other than those where it has finished the season within the relevant relegation positions): (i) if such team is disqualified, thrown out or removed from the league before the relevant season has started, all bets on the affected market will be void (and a new market will subsequently be loaded) and (ii) if such team is disqualified, thrown out or removed from the league after the relevant season has started (or a determination is made by the applicable governing body, during the season, that the team will be thrown out or removed from the league following the season's conclusion), all bets on the affected team will be void. For the avoidance of doubt, if a points deduction is imposed on a team such that it finishes the season within the relegation places which are relevant to the applicable league, bets on that team to be relegated will be settled as winning bets.

10.16 For 'Rock Bottom' markets:

a. All teams must complete all their league fixtures for bets to stand. If one or more teams do not complete all their fixtures for any reason this market will be void. Any fixture that is abandoned, but an official result is awarded, will be classified as a completed fixture, and bets on this market will stand. Any subsequent amendments to league tables after all games have been completed will not affect settlement of this market.

10.17 For Handicap Win and Handicap Bottom markets:

a. Goal difference does not count.

10.18 For 'Top at Christmas' and 'Bottom at Christmas' markets:

a. The market will be settled based on league position as of 25th December regardless of games played and any postponements and/or abandonments. For 'Bottom at Christmas' markets, if a listed team is disqualified, thrown out or otherwise removed from the league prior to the 25th December, all bets will be made void on the relevant market. b. For Top Team from a particular Continent or other selection (for example Top South American, European or African Team), the market will be settled on the team that progressed furthest. Should two named teams play each other in the Final or 3rd/4th Playoff, the winner of the match will be deemed as having progressed furthest. Dead Heat rules apply if two or more teams, which have progressed furthest in a particular market, exit in the tournament at the same stage. c. For Team Scoring Most Goals, Team Conceding Most Goals, Team Shown Most Cards, Total Tournament Goals, Team Top Goalscorer, Total Tournament Hat-tricks and City With Most Goals markets, extra-time is included, however penalty shoot-outs are not included. d. For Team Shown Most Cards markets, only one card will count for a second bookable offence. If a yellow card shown is immediately followed by a red card shown the total number of cards shown will count as one. Therefore, the maximum number of cards issued to any one player in a match will be two. For Player to Score a Goal, Player to Miss a Penalty and Player to Be Sent Off markets in respect of a particular tournament all bets will STAND irrespective of whether or not the player takes part during this tournament. Extra-time is included for such markets however, penalty shoot-outs are only included for Player to Miss a Penalty market and not for the other two. In the event of any dispute as to who has scored any goal, we will follow the decision made by the relevant governing body. 10.19 For "next goalscorer markets":

a. "first, second, third etc. goalscorer markets" or any other market relating to a particular specified goalscorer (including "player to score a goal markets"), own goals will not be taken into account. Should the 9nth(next) goal be an own goal then bets on the subsequent Scorer will be deemed winners. The active goalscorer market will always be representative of the next goal to be scored in the game regardless of the previous goal being an own goal.

10.20 For Goalscorer Match Bets markets

a. The market will be settled on the player who scores the most goals in their respective games out of the players listed (the listed players may or may not be playing in the same game). The 'tie' will be the winning selection should both players score the same number of goals or both players not score. Both players must start (but need not finish) their respective games for bets to stand. Own goals will not count.

10.21 For 'Anytime Correct Score' markets: a. This market offers betting on the chosen selection being the score at any time within 90 minutes of the match plus any injury time added. Where a match is 0-0 at the end of 90 minutes plus any injury time added, all selections will be losers. Extra time does not count.

10.22 For 'Extra Time Correct Score' markets:

a. This market applies to the result during the extra time period only. For the purposes of this market, the score shall be deemed 0-0 at the start of the extra time period.

10.23 For '10 Minute Markets': a. "Goal Scored X - Y" markets are defined as betting on whether there will be a goal scored by one of the teams within the time period X - Y of the event's match clock. b. "Corner Awarded X - Y" markets are defined as betting on whether there will be a corner awarded to one of the teams within the time period X - Y of the event's match clock.

c. "Card Shown X - Y" markets are defined as betting on whether there will be a yellow or red card shown to a player within the time period X - Y of the event's match clock. d. Please be aware that although the current score, time elapsed and other data provided on the Sportsbook site is sourced from a "live" feed provided by a third party, you should be aware that this data may be subject to a time delay and/or be inaccurate. If you rely on this data to place bets, you do so entirely at your own risk. The Sportsbook provides this data

'AS IS' with no warranty as to the accuracy, completeness or timeliness of such data and accepts no responsibility for any loss (direct or indirect) suffered by you as a result of your reliance on it. 10.24 For all Monthly Premier League Markets:

a. The Sportsbook will use the standard Barclays Premier League competition format adjusted to treat each month as a separate competition beginning the 1st of the relevant month and ending at the final whistle of the final match of that month ("Month End"). b. On the 1st of every month, each premier league team is deemed to have no points accrued, goals scored, or goals conceded

1. Teams receive three points for a win

c. Each Monthly Premier League Market, will be determined using the following points rules:

2. One point for a draw 3. No points are awarded for a loss 4. Teams will be ranked by total points, then goal difference and then goals scored

5. If after this there is still a tie between teams the Dead Heat Rule will apply.

d. Any postponed or rescheduled games will be included in the monthly market in which they are played and not the month in which they were originally scheduled. Bets will not be voided on any selection affected by any postponed or rescheduled games. e. If the result of an abandoned or forfeited match is determined by the Premier League governing body, the Sportsbook will follow that result provided always that the result is determined before Month End, otherwise the Sportsbook will settle the Monthly Premier League Market based on the result as known at Month End (including by allotted 0 points to both teams if the result is unknown).

f. Except for the reversal of match results in accordance with the rule above, any points deductions issued by the Premier League governing body (for example for teams going into administration) will not be taken into account by the Sportsbook in the Monthly Premier League Market. 10.25 'Ouickbet' markets:

a. Settlement in all cases will use the time of the event supplied to us by our data provider (such data provider to be selected by us at our absolute discretion from time to time). b. If none of the stated outcomes occur during the stated period, all bets will be settled as losing bets.

c. For the 'goal' selection, a goal will be deemed to have been scored the moment the ball completely crosses the goal-line within the confines of the goal posts, provided that the referee ultimately awards the goal. For example, if the ball completely crosses the goal-line but the goal is not awarded because, for example a foul occurred before the ball crossed the line or because the referee did not believe that the ball did cross the line, then a goal will not be deemed to have been scored. Own goals scored will count towards settlement of this market. d. For the 'free kick' selection, a free-kick will be deemed to have been awarded the moment the referee and or assistant referee signal any of the following: A direct free-kick following a foul, an indirect free-kick following a foul or offside offence but not a penalty kick, corner or drop hall. e. For the 'corner' selection, a corner will be deemed to have been awarded the moment the referee and or assistant referee signal for the award of a corner. f. For the 'goal kick' selection, a goal kick is awarded and timed according to when it was indicated by the referee and/or assistant referees. A kick out from the hands of the goalkeeper or a free kick taken by the goalkeeper is not a goal-kick.

g. For the 'throw in' selection, a throw in will be deemed to have been awarded the moment the referee and or assistant referee signal the award of the throw in.

h. For markets where "hit the woodwork is offered", this will be defined as the ball making contact with any part of the posts or crossbar from an attempt on the opponent's goal during active play. Shots that hit the woodwork on their way into the goal will count. i. For 'Exactacca'' markets, all bets are for 90 minutes only, extra time and penalties will not count. If a player at any stage participates in the game, they will be deemed a runner in the market. If a player does not participate, relevant selections will be void, and the bets settled at the combined price of the remaining selections. i. First & Anytime assist markets: 1. Settlement of this market will be taken from www.statbunker.com.

2. Where www.statbunker.com do not offer a result for the assist of the 1st goal then the betting will apply for the 2nd goal and continue on to the 3rd goal etc. (until an assist is awarded for a goal). 3. Own goals can count for settlement purposes where the preceding touch was by a member of the attacking team.

4. If a player wins a penalty or a free kick that leads to a goal, it does not count as an assist. 5. Bets taken on the first assist will be void if the player on whom a bet is placed does not take part in the game or if he or she comes on after the first goal is scored (and where an assist is awarded for that goal).

6. If a player enters the field of play after the first goal is scored (and where an assist is awarded for that goal), the bet will be voided. If a player is sent off or substituted before the first goal is scored (and where an assist is awarded for that goal) bets on that selection will be settled as losing bets.

a. For match betting markets, if a player or pairing retires in an ATP/WTA/Challenger Tour/Grand Slam/Davis Cup/Fed Cup/Hopman Cup match, the player or pairing progressing to the next round (or winning the tournament in the case of a final) will be deemed the winner (unless the player/pairing retires before the conclusion of the first set, in which circumstances match bets shall be voided). Bets on all other tournaments or matches (such as ITF or exhibition matches) and bets on other markets (i.e. other than match betting markets) will be voided where a player or pairing retires (regardless of whether the retirement occurs during or following the first set) unless, in the case of bets on other markets, the outcome of the bet had been unequivocally determined prior to the time of the retirement (in which case, the bet shall stand and shall be settled accordingly). b. When a player or pairing from any match is disqualified before the conclusion of the match, for the purpose of the settlement of all markets, the player/pairing progressing to the next round (or winning the tournament in the case of a final) will be deemed the winner and that player or pairing will also be deemed to have won all points/games/sets which would have followed the disqualification until the conclusion of the match. c. All tennis bets (including any specials or statistics-based bets) will be settled in accordance with the official website of each tournament's governing body.

d. In the case of any settlement disputes, the Sportsbook's decision is final. e. In the event of a change in the number of sets (or games per set) to be played, bets for match betting markets and "To Win First Set" markets will stand (save where the number of sets is reduced to one from a higher number of sets, in which case such markets will be voided). All other markets will be void. Where the format of the final set is changed (e.g. the number of games to be played in that set is changed) but the number of sets to be played remains the same, bets for match betting markets will stand. f. In the event of a tennis event not taking place or if a player is given a walkover, bets on the event are deemed void (in this context, "event" refers to a single match-up between players, rather than the tournament itself).

g. In the event of a change to any of the following, all bets will stand: 1. a change in court type (indoor to outdoor or vice versa) 2. a change of playing surface (either before or during a match)

3. a change of venue 4. a change to the scheduling which affects the time or date of a match.

h. Where a player, pairing or team does not participate in a tournament (i.e. they are withdrawn prior to the start of their first match), all bets (including outright, quarter or special bets) involving that player, pairing or team will be voided and stakes will be refunded accordingly. Markets may be subject to a Rule 4 deduction. i. A tournament must be completed in full for all markets relating to the outcome to stand. This includes: Name The Finalists, To Reach/Not to Reach Xth Round, Big Guns, Stage of Elimination or any tournament specials. For the Stage of Elimination and Not to Reach the Final markets, a player must play at least one point during the tournament for bets to stand. j. Total Games/Handicap related markets: For the purposes of such markets, a tie-break is counted as one game. Forfeited points or games will count for final settlement purposes. As per the earlier rule listed on this "Tennis" section above, when a player or pairing from any match is disqualified before the conclusion of the match, for the purpose of the settlement of total games/handicap markets, the other player or pairing will be deemed to have won all points/games/sets which would have followed the disqualification until the conclusion of

k. Champions Tie Breaks: In some competitions, matches that reach one set all are decided by a Champions tie-break. 1. If a match is decided by a Champions tie-break then the Champions tie-break will be considered to be the third set.

2. Where, for a match involving a champions' tie break, we erroneously accept bets on the winner of a specified game in the final set, on the total number of games in such set or on handicap markets relating to such set (or similar), the bets in question will be void. 3. For the purpose of bets taken relating to Total Games market or Game Handicaps market for the match, the champions tie-break will be considered to be one game. 4. A Champions tie-break will not count towards any 'Will there be a Tie-Break' markets and will not be treated as a tie-break for any markets involving the occurrence of a number of tie- breaks.

I. Game or Point related markets: If the wrong player has been set as the server for any individual game (Current or Next Game) then all markets relating to the outcome of that specific game will be void, regardless of the result. In the event of a game not being completed, all bets on the game will be void with the exception of Game to Deuce if the result has already been determined. m. Games / Alternative Games / Exact Games Won Margin: These markets are resulted on the absolute difference in total games won by player A and total games won by player B. For example, if Player A wins 17 games and Player B wins 19 games during the match, the market will be settled based on the absolute difference (which is 2). n. Aces / Double Fault related markets: The match must be completed for bets to stand, except in the case of the first ace or first double fault markets. These markets will be settled on the basis of official scoring providers or official tournament websites (and in the event of any discrepancies between data of official scoring providers and that of tournament websites, the data of tournament websites will take precedence). Notwithstanding the foregoing, for ace/double fault related markets: 1. ITF matches will be settled on the basis of data from Sportradar and the tournament website of the ITF (and, in the event of any discrepancy, the data of the tournament website of the ITF will take precedence); and

2. ATP and WTA matches will be settled on the basis of data from IMG and the tournament websites of ATP/WTA (and, in the event of any discrepancy, the data of the tournament websites of the ATP/WTA, as applicable, will take precedence).

o. Where a handicap is attributed to an entire market (e.g. the market is entitled "To Win - 1.5 sets)" and there is no handicap attributed to any individual selection within that market, the relevant handicap will be applied to each first named selection. For example, if a market is entitled "To Win – 1.5 sets" and one of the selections within the market is "Federer V Nadal", if the final score of the match is "Federer 3 sets, Nadal 2 sets", that selection will be settled as if it the final score had been "Federer 1.5 sets, Nadal 2 sets" (i.e. any bets on Federer will be settled as losing bets and any bets on Nadal will be settled as winning bets). Unless otherwise stated in the name/heading of a market or selection, totals/handicaps apply to the overall match (rather than to sets or games). 12 Cricket Bets placed on any player not named in the starting eleven are void. d) Players named in the starting eleven that do not bowl are deemed to have taken part and bets on any such players will be settled as losing bets. e) If two or more players take the same number of wickets, dead heat rules will apply. If no wickets are taken then the market will be voided. 9. Batsman Match Bets a) Unless otherwise stated, these markets will be settled on the number of runs scored in the first innings of a match only. b) If any of the players named in the market do not bat then the market will be void. c) Dead heat rules will apply if two or more of the named batsmen score the same number of runs (such number of runs being higher than the number of runs scored by each other batsman named in the market). 10. Bowler Match Bets / Trios / Threesomes a) Unless otherwise stated, these markets will be settled based on the number of wickets taken in the first innings of a match only. b) In the event of players taking the same number of wickets where there was no draw price offered, dead heat rules will apply. c) All participants in the match bet must bowl at least one ball for bets to stand. 11. Player Runs / Player Alternate Runs / Player Fours / Player Sixes / Player to score 50/100 a) If the batsman finishes the innings not out as a result of a declaration, the team reaching the end of its allotted overs or the team reaching its target, the player's "not out" score will count for settlement purposes. b) If a batsman does not bat, bets on that batsman will be void. c) If a batsman is not in the starting 11, bets on that batsman will be void.

of the bet had already been unequivocally determined. 12. Number of Runs in a Session a) The result of this market is determined by the total number of runs scored in the course of the session regardless of which team(s) has/have scored the runs (i.e. if there is a change of innings during the session then the result will be determined by the combined number of runs scored, during the session, in both innings). b) There are three sessions per day in test cricket. The first session is from the start of play in the morning until lunch is called. The second session is from lunch until tea is called. The third session is from tea until the close of play. If fewer than 20 overs are bowled in any particular session then bets on the number of runs scored in that session will be void.

e) In limited overs matches, bets on these markets will be void if it has not been possible to complete at least 80% of the scheduled overs in either innings due to external factors (including bad weather) unless, at the time of the completion of the innings, the outcome

d) If a batsman retires hurt but returns later, the total runs scored by that batsman in the innings will count for settlement purposes. If the batsman does not return later, the final result, for settlement purposes, will be as it stood when the batsman retired.

c) Extras (wides, no-balls, byes and leg byes) do count towards the number of runs scored. 13. Number of Wickets in a Session a) This market will be settled based on the total number of wickets lost in the session (regardless of which team loses them). If fewer than 20 overs are bowled in the session then all bets on the market will be void. Players retiring (e.g. because they are hurt) do not

14. Runs in a Specified Number of Overs (e.g. 1st 15 Overs) a) The full number of specified overs must be played for bets to stand (unless the innings has reached its natural conclusion or further play could not, were it to occur,

b) Any change in fielding restrictions due to a reduction in scheduled overs will not affect the settlement of this market. 15. Highest Score First 5/10/15 Overs

a) If either team's innings in a limited overs match is reduced due to external factors then bets on this market will be void unless the result was already unequivocally determined before any reduction in overs was announced. b) Bets will stand if the innings is shortened due to it reaching its natural conclusion. In a two-innings match this market only applies to the first innings unless stated otherwise. In the event of a tie where we did not offer a "tie" or "draw" selection, all bets will be settled as a dead heat. 16. Highest Opening Partnership a) If either team's innings is shortened after the commencement of play then all bets on this market will be void, unless the result has already been unequivocally determined before the reduction in overs.

b) In a two-innings match, this market only applies to the first innings unless stated otherwise. In the event of a tie then the tie selection is the winner and all other bets are losers. If we do not offer a "tie" or "draw" selection then all bets will be settled as a dead heat. In the event of a batsman retiring hurt (or otherwise voluntarily for any other reason), this market will be settled according to the score when the first wicket falls. 17. Next Man Out a) Should no further wickets be taken in the innings then bets on this market will be void. b) If either of the batsmen retires hurt then bets on this market will be void and a new market will be made.

a) If either team's innings in a limited overs match is reduced by more than 20% of the original allocation of overs then all bets on this market will be void regardless of how many sixes are hit prior to, or after, any announced reduction in overs.

b) Bets will stand if either innings is shortened due to it reaching its natural conclusion. 19. Super Over/Any additional overs above the allotted amount a) In a limited overs competition which employs a super over (or other such similar initiative) to determine the winner of a match in the event of a tie, runs scored in the super over are not included in the settlement of any runscorer or wicket taker markets (e.g. Batsmen Total Runs, Team Total Runs, Top Team Runscorer, Batsmen match bets, Top Team Bowler).

b) In addition, any sixes hit in a super over will not be included in the settlement of "Team to score most sixes" and "Total number of sixes" markets. 20. Next Over: Over/Under Runs/Run Margins a) This market will be settled based on the total number of runs achieved in the over (including any extras awarded). b) In the event of an over not being completed, all bets on that particular index shall be void. This does not apply if the innings reaches its natural conclusion.

21. Four/Six in x Over a) Bets in this market will be settled where a boundary (four or six) is hit in the named over. The runs must come off the bat. Players running four/six and/or extras do not count for this market. a) If either team's innings in a limited overs match is reduced by more than 20% of the original allocation of overs then all bets on this market shall be void regardless of how many sixes/fours are hit prior to, or after, any announced reduction in overs. However, bets will stand if either innings is shortened due to it reaching its natural conclusion.

23. First Over: Over/Under Total Runs a) Bets will be settled on the total number of runs scored in the first over of the first innings of the match. This will include any extras or penalty runs. b) The over must be completed for bets to stand unless the result is already unequivocally decided.

c) All bets shall be void if the first over is not fully completed due to external factors, unless the result is already unequivocally determined at such time as the reduction in overs takes place. d) For Limited Overs Matches, First Over Runs will be settled on the score at the end of the first over regardless of any reductions in overs. 24. First Ball of the Match

a) This market will be settled on the outcome of the first completed delivery, excluding any deliveries declared as dead ball. b) In limited overs cricket, this market will be resulted on the first ball of the match regardless of any reductions in overs providing it is bowled. 25. Team of Top Match Runscorer a) For test matches and county championship matches, this market will be settled based on the overall top score achieved in the first innings of either side.

b) Should either side face less than their allocated number of overs in their innings for any reason (other than the innings reaching its natural conclusion) then all bets on this market will be void. However, the market will be settled should the result already be determined c) For limited overs matches, all bets shall be void should there be any reduction to either side's innings before or after the commencement of play.

a) If the team batting second faces less than 20 overs in their innings for any reason (other than the innings reaching its natural conclusion) then all bets on this market

b) In the event of a tie, bets will be void. 27. Total Match Runouts

a) If either team's innings in a limited overs match is reduced by more than 20% of the original allocation of overs then all bets on this market will be void. b) Bets will stand if either innings is shortened due to it reaching its natural conclusion. 28. Fall of Next Team Wicket (i.e. the score on which it will fall)

a) If the batting team reaches the end of its allotted overs, reaches its target or declares before the specified wicket falls, the next team wicket will be deemed to have fallen for the total score achieved by the batting side. b) For settlement purposes, a batsman retiring hurt does not count as a wicket.

c) In limited overs matches, bets will be void if the innings has been reduced due to external factors (including bad weather) unless, at the time of the completion of the innings, the outcome of the bet had already been unequivocally determined. Results will be considered to have been unequivocally determined if the line at which the bet was placed is passed or the wicket in question has fallen. 29. Team Wickets Lost a) In a limited overs match, this market will be settled based on the number of wickets lost by the team in their innings.

b) Should the innings be shortened for any reason (other than it reaching its natural conclusion) then all unequivocally decided bets will be settled while all others c) In a test match, this market refers to the total number of wickets lost by the team in its second innings only. 30. 17 Rugby Union and Rugby League

17.1 Rugby Union Rules

a. Unless otherwise stated, all rugby union bets are settled on 80 minutes' play plus any injury time.

s. Top Tryscorer / Top Team Tryscorer / Top Points Scorer: dead heat rules apply.

b. For Rugby 7s tournaments, all bets are settled on the result at the end of extra time unless the market has a "Draw" or "Tie" selection in which circumstances the market is settled on the result after the completion of normal time. Double Result will be settled after extra time. The "Any Draw" or "Tie" selection will only be a winner in the case of a half time draw in games where extra time takes place. c. If a match is postponed, bets will stand until 48 hours from the original kick off time, after which time they will be void.

d. If the venue is changed from the one advertised, all bets on that match are void. e. Any parlay bet reduced by an abandoned, postponed or re-arranged match will stand on the remaining selections.

f. If a match starts but is abandoned before its completion, all bets will be void unless an official result is declared by the applicable governing body. Where an official result has been declared by the official governing body, that official result will govern match and handicap market settlement but all other markets will be void unless their result has already been determined at the point of abandonment (i.e. at the point of abandonment, it would not have been possible for the outcome of the bet to change had the match continued to its natural conclusion). By way of example, if 37 points have been scored at the time a match is abandoned: (i) a bet placed on 35 points or more to be scored would be settled as a winning bet, (ii) a bet placed on 30-35 points to be scored would be settled as a losing bet and (iii) a bet placed on 40-45 points to be scored would be void. In such circumstances, bets on last tryscorer / team to score last / team to score last try / last scoring play would all be void. g. Outright Bets: all bets placed on outright markets will be settled on official tournament results. For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur then all bets on that competitor are void and monies will be returned. Any bets placed after a points deduction may have prices adjusted accordingly.

h. All outright markets which state "Regular Season" (or similar) are deemed to mean the official standings of teams after all matches of the predetermined season are played and before any playoff matches have commenced. i. Tournament Tries/Points: Bets will apply to all playing time, including any extra time in any match where an official result is declared. j. To Miss Top 2 / Top 4 / Top 8: For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur, then all bets on that competitor are void. k. Tryscorers: All bets will be refunded if they were placed on players not included the official match day 22 or 23 (depending on the competition). If a substitute is not on the field before the first try is scored then bets on that player will be void in the 'First Tryscorer', 'First Team Tryscorer' and 'First Tryscorer Insurebet' markets. If a substitute comes on at any stage during the game, they will be considered 'All In' for all other tryscorer markets. If they do not take any part in the game, they will be void in all tryscorer markets. I. First/Last Tryscorer: In the event of a penalty try being the first / last try scored, we will pay out on the penalty try option if offered. If the penalty try option is not offered, we will pay out, for "First Try" markets, on the next tryscorer following the penalty try (where the first try is a penalty try) and, for "Last Try" markets, on the tryscorer immediately preceding the penalty try (where the last try is a penalty try). For 'xth Tryscorer' markets, if the penalty try option is not offered, we will void any bets placed on the Xth try to be scored by a particular player (e.g. if that try is in fact a penalty try). If there is no try scored after the penalty try then "First Try" and "Last Try" markets will be void. m. First Tryscorer Insurebet: If the player fails to score the first try but does score a try in the match then the bet stake will be returned. If a substitute is not on the field before the first try is scored then bets on that player will be void. n. Position to Score First Try: In the event of a penalty try being the first try scored, we will pay out on the position of the next tryscorer for "Position to Score First Try" markets. For 'Position to score xth Try' markets, in the event of a penalty try, we will pay out on the position which scores the next try (e.g. if the first try scored in a match is a penalty try and the second try is scored by a 'forward', then a 'forward' will be deemed to have scored both the first and second tries). If there is no try scored after the penalty try then this market will

o. To win in Extra Time: If there is no winner following extra time, dead heat rules will apply to bets on this market. p. Tryscorer Matchbets / Kicker Matchbets / To Score the Most Points Matchbets: Both players must be in the starting 15 for bets to stand. If there is no 'Tie' or 'Draw' selection offered and the result is a tie then all bets will be void. q. Best Kicking Percentage Matchbets / Kicker Matchbets / To Score the Most Points Matchbets: Bets will be void if both players do not attempt at least 1 placed kick at goal. r. Player Total Points / Perfect Kicking record: Bets will be void if the selected player does not attempt at least 1 placed kick at goal.

t. Regular Season Team Matchbets: dead heat rules apply. u. Head to Head: Any extra time will be counted for settlement purposes. In the result of a draw where no extra time is played, this market will be settled according to dead heat rules. v. Line: Any extra time will be counted for settlement purposes. w. Man of the Match: for Rugby World Cup Man of the Match markets, the market will be settled based on the official 'Man of the Match' as determined by the Rugby World Cup official site. If the Rugby World Cup official site fails to declare an official Man of the Match for any reason, all bets will be void.

17.2 Rugby League Rules a. Unless otherwise stated, all rugby league bets are settled on 80 minutes' play plus any injury time. b. All bets on NRL matches will be settled on the official declared result including any extra time, except 'Match Betting, 'Point Spread (Handicap) Betting, 'Will There Be Extra Time?', 'Highest Scoring Half' and 'Half With Most Tries' markets (which will be settled on the basis of 80 minutes' play plus any injury time). In Point Spread (Handicap)/Line and Totals betting where the value selected is a whole number (e.g. 6.0), and the result lands on that number, then all wagers related to that line number will be refunded, and any such bet will be deemed an excluded leg for the purpose of any applicable parlay, which will be recalculated excluding that leg. The same rules apply for State of Origin and any other Australian Rugby League match where extra time is played. c. If the result of an NRL match after extra time is a draw, then the Dead Heat Rule will apply to all bets where a winner has not been officially declared. All winning margin bets, including Dozen Winning Margins, will be deemed unsuccessful bets as neither team has won the d. If a match is postponed, bets will stand until 48 hours from the original kick off time, after which time they will be void.

e. If the venue is changed from the one advertised, all bets on that match are void. f. Any parlay bet reduced by an abandoned, postponed or re-arranged match will stand on the remaining selections. g. If a match starts but is abandoned before its completion, all bets will be void unless an official result is declared by the applicable governing body. Where an official result has been declared by the official governing body, that official result will govern match and handicap market settlement but all other markets will be void unless their result has already been determined at the point of abandonment (i.e. at the point of abandonment, it would not have been possible for the outcome of the bet to change had the match continued to its natural conclusion). By way of example, if 37 points have been scored at the time a match is abandoned: (i) a bet placed on 35 points or more to be scored would be settled as a winning bet, (ii) a bet placed on 30-35 points to be scored would be settled as a losing bet and (iii) a bet placed on 40-45 points to be scored would be void. In such circumstances, bets on last tryscorer / team to score last / team to score last try / last scoring play would all be void.

h. Outright Bets: all bets placed on outright markets will be settled on official tournament results. For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur then all bets on that competitor are void and monies will be returned. Any bets placed after a points deduction may have prices adjusted accordingly. i. NRL & Super League Outright / Regular Season Outright / Top 2 / 4 / 8 Finish: All In Betting. Any Team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter for resulting purposes. Any loss of titles after the completion of the Grand Final will be deemed null and void and all bets will stand. All outright markets which state "Regular Season" (or similar) are deemed to mean the official standings of teams after all matches of the predetermined season are played and before any playoff j. NRL & Super League Wooden Spoon: This market is settled on the team which has the least wins for the season. A draw is considered as half a win. In the event of more than one team having the same number of wins, the outcome will be determined by the worst 'for and against' points total. Points deducted because of breaches of rules and regulations are excluded for resulting purposes. All In. Win Only.

k. To Miss Top 2 / 4 / 8: For betting purposes, any team which has points deducted due to breaches of rules and regulations will be deemed a starter. If, at the time a deduction of points is announced, the loss of points means that only one eventuality can occur, then all bets on that competitor will be void. I. Tournament Tries/Points: Bets will apply to all playing time (including any extra time) in any match where an official result is declared. m. Tryscorers: All bets will be refunded if they were placed on players not included in the official match day 17. All players that are named in the match day 17 will be considered 'All In' for all tryscorer markets (including "First Tryscorer" and "First Team Tryscorer" markets). n. First/Last Tryscorer: In the event of a penalty try being the first / last try scored, we will pay out on the penalty try option if offered. If the Penalty Try option is not offered we pay on the next tryscorer for first try or preceding tryscorer for last try. For xth Try betting if the Penalty Try option is not offered we pay on the next tryscorer i.e. if the second try scored in a match is a penalty try and the third try is scored by Paul Smith, then Paul Smith will be deemed the winner for the second and third tries. If there is no try scored after the penalty try

p. To win in Extra Time: If there is no winner following extra time, dead heat rules will apply to bets on this market. q. Tryscorer Matchbets / Kicker Matchbets / To Score the Most Points Matchbets: Both players must be in the starting 13 for bets to stand. If there is no 'Tie' or 'Draw' Selection offered and the result is a tie then all bets will be void. r. Best Kicking Percentage Matchbets / Kicker Matchbets: Bets will be void if both players do not attempt at least 1 placed kick at g s. Player Total Points / Perfect Kicking record: Bets will be void if a player does not attempt at least 1 placed kick at goal.

t. Statistics/Supercoach Markets: All bets on players not in the starting 13 will be void. All statistic bets will be paid at the completion of each round in accordance with official NRL statistics. Supercoach markets will be paid at the completion of each round in accordance with the Daily Telegraph (Australia) results. u. Top Tryscorer / Top Points Scorer: dead heat rules apply. v. Regular Season Team Matchbets: dead heat rules apply.

a. In the event of a match starting but not being completed, the player progressing to the next round will be deemed the winner (or in the final the player declared the winner). b. If a player fails to start a tournament or match all bets on that player or individual match will be void. c. If a match is not completed for any reason then bets on 'any correct score' or 'next frame' market will be void. d. If a match is not completed for any reason, bets on any handicap market will be void unless the market has been unconditionally determined. e.
