CAN SEE DA FEET WINS THE SWEET HOME ALABAMA STAKES AT DELTA DOWNS

- 4-YEAR-OLD GELDING WINS FIRST STAKES RACE OF HIS CAREER -

VINTON, LA. – Delta Downs hosted the $50,000 Sweet Home Alabama Stakes for Alabama-bred horses on Saturday and the winner was Live-Lee Farm's Can See Da Feet under jockey Isaac Castillo. The Sherman Savoie trainee beat six rivals in the seven-furlong event for 3-year-olds and upward.

Can See Da Feet was reserved early in the race after breaking cleanly in the two-two affair while Aoide and Wendy's Ghost battled for the lead through fractional times of 23.52 seconds for the opening quarter mile and 48.13 for the half. As the field entered the second turn, Can See Da Feet began a run at the leaders while traveling at the rail.

Entering the homestretch, a space opened on the inside after the pacesetters drifted out and from that point on the outcome was never in doubt. Can See Da Feet reported home 3-3/4 lengths in front of Chamois' Splendor, who rallied for second. Wendy's Ghost settled for third, another 2-1/4 lengths behind the runner-up. Can See Da Feet covered the distance over a fast track in 1:29.65.

The win was the first stakes score of Can See Da Feet's career. His record now stands at two wins, two seconds and two thirds from 10 trips to the starting gate. He earned $30,000 for the win and now owns a bankroll of $72,750.

Bred in Alabama by his owner, Can See Da Feet is a 4-year-old bay gelding by Divide and Conquer, out of the Indy mare Bornupatree.

Sent to the gate at odds of 3-1, Can See Da Feet paid $8.60 to win, $5.20 to place and $5.60 to show. Chamois' Splendor was worth $11.80 to place and $11 to show. Wendy's Ghost was worth $5.60 to show.

Delta Downs will look forward to the third week of the season. Live racing will take place Wednesday through Saturday, October 21-24. First post time each day is at 4:40pm.
