TOUCHUPONASTAR WINS HIS FOURTH CONSECUTIVE LOUISIANA PREMIER NIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP AT DELTA DOWNS

THE ANNUAL EVENT ATTRACTED A LARGE CROWD AND OVER $900,000 IN PURSES

VINTON, LA. – Delta Downs hosted the 23rd edition of Louisiana Premier Night on Saturday and fans were treated to an 11-race program that featured more than $900,000 in total purse money for horses bred in the Bayou State.

The featured race on the card was the $150,000 Louisiana Premier Night Championship for 4-year-olds and up competing at 1-1/16 miles. The overwhelming favorite for the event was Touchuponastar, who was attempting to win his fourth straight Championship under jockey Tim Thornton and owner Set-hut LLC.

Touchuponastar broke from the outside post in a field of five and was sent toward the front where he is accustomed to running, but he did not lead in the initial strides. Instead, it was longshot A Million Moons who set the early fractions of 23.38 seconds for the quarter mile and 46.88 for the half mile while being pressed by Touchuponastar.

When the field reached the far turn, Touchuponastar took over the lead with ease and began to build his advantage stride by stride for the rest of the trip while stopping the timer in 1:11.58 for three quarters of a mile. In the homestretch Thornton looked over his shoulder but there was no competition, as he reported home in front of stablemate Mangum by 11-1/2 lengths. Tdzshininluckystar rounded out the top three, finishing 1-1/2 lengths behind the runner-up in third.

Touchuponastar covered the distance in a final time of 1:44.03 while running on a fast track.

The win by Touchuponastar was his 20th from 27 overall starts. He added another $90,000 to his bankroll which now stands at $1,760,000. That total surpassed his sire Star Guitar, who deposited $1,749,862 during his illustrious career. Star Guitar's total stood as a record for a Louisiana-bred for several years before the mare Free Like a Girl posted a mark of $2,565,628, which is the current record.
